

WASHINGTON, D.C.
STAR

E. 382,075
S. 339,766

OCT 28 1964

(Mrs. Turner, 52,
Retired Worker
In Government

Mrs. G. Adolph Turner, 52, who retired last month after 20 years of government service, died Monday at the Washington Hospital Center after a long illness.

The former Dorothy Kelso, her husband is a retired special assistant to the District Commissioners' office.

Mrs. Turner was most recently a personnel officer at the Central Intelligence Agency.

Earlier, she spent 10 years as a professional Red Cross worker, serving in both the European and Pacific theaters during World War II.

She began her professional life in Washington as a secretary to the director of activities of the old Playground Department of the District government.

A native of Phillipsburg, N. J., Mrs. Turner came to Washington as a very small child. She was a graduate of Eastern High School and attended George Washington University. She began her career with the District government while attending college.

Besides her husband, of the home, address, 2005 Key Blvd., Arlington, Va., she leaves her mother, Mrs. Elsie M. Kelso, of 402 Oakwood St. SE; a sister Mary, of the same address, and one brother, Dr. Richard E., a Washington pathologist who lives in Middleburg, Va.

Services will be at 11:45 a.m. tomorrow at Lee funeral home, Fourth and Massachusetts Avenue NE. Burial will be in Arlington National Cemetery.